Video in reports makes negotiations easy.

- ✓ Clearly show an issue that may be hard to identify easily.
- ✓ Less issues during negotiations and conflicting estimates from contractors.
- ✓ Less stressful for both sides of the transaction.

Video makes the home inspection less intimidating to the buyer

- ✔ Keeps the buyer from “wondering” about issues when they can see them.
- ✔ Reduces liability for all parties by showing the current condition of things.
- ✔ Makes buyers more comfortable that they received a thorough inspection.

Video makes hard-to-reach places easier to see & understand

- ✓ Crawlspaces & attics become less of a mystery with video.
- ✓ The inside of electric panels and issues there can be recorded.
- ✓ Tight spaces can often be recorded, even if they aren't fully accessible.

Video gives out of town clients more peace of mind.

- ✔ Videos of major areas of concern can be narrated for them.
- ✔ Helps them have less worry about the condition of their home.
- ✔ Allows them to replay video and answers many of their questions before they ask them.
